Infirmary Benefit Concert.

The ladies of the Patti A. Clay Infirmary Association who have made possible several musical treats in the past, announce another concert for August 5th at the Normal Chapel for the benefit of the infirmary. In this concert they will present Mr. J. A. Panther, Tenor, and Mrs. Panther, Pianist, for a classic and modern program of song and piano music. Mr. and Mrs. Panther are spending their vacation with Mrs. Panther's parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Giunchigliani, and we are very fortunate in having an opportunity of hearing these two talented young musicians. Mrs. Panther who is well known to all of us as Edna Giunchigliani has been looked upon as one of the best musicians in Richmond ever developed. She spent four years at the College of Music in Cincinnati and finished her work there with high honors, being awarded the Springer Gold Medal, an honor bestowed only upon the most talented. We regret her loss from Richmond's musical colony but are glad to give her the opportunity of working in a larger field. Mr. Panther, tenor, appeared here two years ago with the Lyric Quartet and made quite a favorable impression. He has been concertizing for the past four years through out Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio and is regarded as one of the best tenors in the middle west.

We predict a warm reception for these young people in their first joint recital before a Richmond audience. It is possible that a local singer of great ability will assist. Members of the Association will soon offer tickets for sale.

Is your house and barn insured? Better see Burnham, the insurance man.

Puzzled to Know.

Today we are printing ballots for the good ladies to vote in the Boyle county school election. We have been quite puzzled to know if they should be printed on the bias, hemstitched, whipped over or made with slit-skirt effect.—Louis Landrum in Danville Messenger.

President Evans Dead.

The Climax is in receipt of the announcement of the death of Mr. Edward F. Evans, president of the Cincinnati Cordage & Paper Co. Mr. Evans was one of the oldest men in the paper and cordage business in the Queen City and one of the best. This office has been a patron of his house for many years and has always found it a most satisfactory one to deal with.

Deaton Got Life Sentence.

D. Fletch Deaton, tried at Winchester for conspiracy in the murder of Ed Callahan in Breathitt county, was given a life sentence. A Madison jury, whose names were given in the last issue of the Climax, tried the case and rendered the verdict. This is the second life sentence that has been given the men who brought about the death of the former sheriff of Breathitt.

Deals In Real Estate, Stock and Crops of Special Interest

Monticello will hold no fair this year.

Nine cents per pound for stock hogs for delivery Aug. 20 prevails in Nicholas county.

Harry Clay, of Bourbon, bought from Carl Trimble, of Montgomery county, 155 ewes at $3.65.

Charles Clark, of Bourbon, bought 22 500-pound cattle from Capt. Hurst, of Montgomery, at $7.

R. E. Hughes, of Louisville, bought 178 acres of the Beazley Bros.' farm, near Lancaster, at a fancy price.

W. F. Brooks, of Bourbon, bought of W. P. Treadway, of Montgomery county, 20 head of 650-pound hogs at $6.

May Goff, near North Middletown, bought from Samuel Cole, of Montgomery county, 34 400-pound cattle at 6 1/2 cents.

John Woodford, near Paris, sold 47 fat cattle to H. S. Caywood, of Bourbon, at $6. The cattle were delivered last week.

Dean & Hutehings, of Boyle, bought of Col. R. G. Evans 56 head of 135-lb. hogs at $3.50 and of C. P. Cecil, Sr., 44 180-pound hogs at same price.

Martin & Walden bought of Isaac Shelby 11 lambs, of S. S. Cook 6, all at $6; a 900-pound heifer of E. R. Galbreath at $5; 5 butcher cattle of Mitchell Taylor at $5 and sold 3 sows to C. O. Wotard at $14 each.—Danville Messenger.

At the recent Miles City, Mont., horse sales 3,500 head sold. Big-boned draft mares and geldings weighing 1,350 sold in car lots from $65 to $90. Mares and geldings weighing 1,000 to 1,200 brought $10 to $15 per head. Good boned yearlings brought $20 to $35. Two-year-olds $30 to $40. Lighter ones brought $15 to $30; 1,000 single horses brought $15 to $125.

The largest cattle sale of the season in Bourbon county was completed on last Wednesday, when J. H. Woodford sold to H. S. Caywood for Swift & Co., 80 head of fat cattle, averaging 1,430 lbs., at $6, for immediate delivery. John Woodford also sold to the same buyer for Swift & Co. 37 head of fat cattle at same price.

The U. S. army is now short at least 1,000 horses—a greater shortage than has ever existed. The War Department has already expended $100,000 allowed by Congress March 4 last, and while another appropriation of $175,000 was available July 1, at present prices not nearly enough horses can be had to meet the demand.

One of the greatest saddle ring shows ever made in Kentucky was that at the Mt. Sterling Fair Friday. Horsemen were there from everywhere and excitement ran high. Following were the winners: First, W. J. Shropshire, with Hazle Daune; second, Mat Cohen, with Mary Yandell Fox; third, Allie Jones; fourth, Pres Way, with Whirlwind.

The largest steer ever handled by the Independent Packing Co., of St. Louis, was slaughtered there for John Caffarata, proprietor of a restaurant. The animal weighed 2,900 pounds on foot, and dressed out more than 2,000 pounds. The steer was raised by Caffarata on his farm in St. Louis county. It was three years old and at the market price it would have brought $200 on the hoof.

I extend an invitation to every person who takes part in the Democratic primary to be held Saturday, August 2, to vote for me for the nomination for Sheriff. If I have not asked your support, consider this an invitation to vote for me. Elmer Deatherage. 84 St.

Public Speaking.

The Hon. A. L. Furgerson, of Georgetown, Scott county, vice-president and a member of the executive board of the Burley Tobacco Society and Company, will deliver an address to the members of the 1906-'07-'08 Pool on August 4th, Monday, county court day, at 1:30 p. m., at the court house in Richmond.

Mr. Furgerson will explain in detail the present financial condition of the society and company. This will be of vital interest to every tobacco grower, and especially to the poolers of 1909, who own the 10 per cent. stock in the Burley Tobacco Co. On this date your certificate of stock will be issued, provided you are at this meeting, and have with you your warehouse receipt; so do not fail to be at the meeting, bringing your receipt with you. There will also be a meeting of the Madison County Board of Control on the same date at 10 a. m., at the court house, in the grand jury room.

Please tell all the members of the pool and urge them to be present. The public is also cordially invited to be present to hear Mr. Furgerson. He is a brainy and logical speaker and a practical farmer. Every tobacco grower in the county should be interested in this meeting, as the future success of the Burley Tobacco Society and Company will to a great extent determine the price of your tobacco in the future.

Respectfully, Jesse Conn.

Member Dist. B'd for Madison Co.

Faulkner Kennedy Gets Pardon.

Faulkner Kennedy, of Lincoln county, who was out on parole, has been pardoned by Gov. McCreary. He was sentenced to the penitentiary for ten years for the part he took in the killing of man named Shupe, he and his brother having killed him some six or seven years ago. Since he was granted parole Kennedy has been living a useful life. He is in very bad health and it is doubtful if he could have withstood much longer the confinement of the penitentiary.

JULY 29, 1913

FLOESIE BLOOM, or whatever her name is, who startled the natives of Richmond, Va., with a skirt slit not wisely but too well, can go to Atlanta, Ga., if she so desires and can wear her modern apparel and show her shapely self off all she wants. Mayor Woodward has declared that he doesn't believe it one of the functions of municipal government to tell women how to dress and that as long as there is no absolute indecency, he proposes to leave it to the women themselves as to how their skirts shall be slashed and how thin the material shall be. "If a woman wants to wear a slashed gown, it may be foolish on her part, but if she can stand it I can," the mayor is quoted as saying, "and I don't think it is any business of the police to interfere." Since the skirt style came in, many rather daring costumes have been seen on Peachtree and Whitehall streets, in that city, but they have caused neither riots nor insults to the wearers. Atlantians are more or less accustomed to spectacular dressing, and if the Venus de Milo herself were to come to life in a modern skirt and slash it to her knees, it is very doubtful if Atlanta would make as much fuss as Richmond did over Miss Outis Rosebud, or whatever her name was.

NKAR Ashland, Lydia Bailey, aged six, was shot to death by her sister, only seven years older, with a gun which she did not know was loaded. But the question arises, what right has a thirteen-year-old child to monkey with a gun loaded or unloaded? The trouble is, people are too careless about leaving weapons around and in many cases have more of their means invested in guns than they should have. In some portions of the mountains we are informed that there are men whose investments in "shooting irons" far exceed that of their household goods and kitchen furniture. And we might add that right here in this glorious blue-grass section—the garden spot of the world—there are many people whose homes much more resemble an arsenal than that of the abiding place of peaceable, good citizens.

It is Otto the father of a young bride has deposited a bond forfeitable to her father-in-law if she doesn't carry out her wedding agreement in good faith. The groom's father has deposited a similar bond which he will forfeit to the bride's father if the young man defaults with any woman except his wife; loaves, drinks, gambles or plays pool. The chances seem to favor a close watch over the doings of the young folks. Each father evidently has faith in his child, else he wouldn't risk the $700. Whether the bonds given by the fathers will make the bride and groom behave is a question. Young people are independent sometimes and might resent having somebody stand sponsor for them. If both of them were to kick over the traces as the bonds would be exchanged and neither father would be out or in $700.

THE Climax is proud of the dignified, clean campaign its former editor, Mr. A. B. Miller, is making for Representative. But it is just what the paper might have and did expect of the splendid gentleman. His opponents have been treated with the utmost courtesy and consideration and we do not believe he has by word or deed taken advantage of them. That he has made many friends by his good conduct, there can be no doubt, and at the wind-up of the campaign which will come Saturday, whether he is the victor or of the vanquished, he will have the satisfaction of knowing that he is much closer to the people of the county than when he announced for the office he seeks and that he has made a many race, giving to the gentleman who oppose him the very best that is in him.

BOSTON'S maidens are to use whistles to attract attention—no, not quite as bad as you think. It is to attract the attention of the cops to the "mashers" who abound on the street corners. However, the samples of the Boston women that we have seen could attract a great deal more attention were they supplied with bells or whistles, or something else to make a noise with. Certainly their personal charms would not attract very much.

COMMENTING on the claim that Secretary of State Bryan does not make enough out of his office to live on, a Florida exchange suggests that after Congress is over the capitol be converted into a moving picture concern and the proceeds divided between the members of the cabinet. This will be all right with the Commoner if he were given the lion's share.

A RICHMOND, Va., photographer, who was right there on the scene and ought to know, says that Floesie Bloom, the young woman who was fined $25 for appearing on the street in a slit skirt, made quite a show and attracted almost as much attention as a circus parade. The pictures he took of her went like "hot cakes."

UP in Vermont they call President Wilson a "nice, simple-looking man," and down here in the South we speak of them as "shrewd," discerning Yankees. Environment and location make wonderful changes in feelings and things generally.

THE fact that the Japanese minister received such an ovation on his arrival at the Mexican capital shows conclusively that the little Jap has more than the ordinary commercial interest in the Mexican republic.

A PITTSBURGH, Pa., arbiter of fashion is authority for the statement that men will soon be wearing slit trousers. A great many of the poor devils, who have nobody to see for them, are already wearing "split" ones.

EDITING a newspaper is a nice thing. If we publish jokes people say that we are rattle brained; if we don't we are fossils. If we publish original matter they say that we don't give them enough selections; if we give them selections they say we are too lazy to write. If we don't go to church they say we are heathens, if we go we are hypocrites. If we remain at the office we ought to be out looking for news items; if we go out then we are not attending to business. If we wear good clothes, they say we have a pull. Now, what are we to do? Just as likely as not some one will say that we stole this from an exchange, and sure enough we did!

LOUISVILLE has a base ball team that is known as the "Kiss-Mes". If it is a female organization and the members of it are not more attractive than the aggregation of "shes" that played Richmond some time ago, they will have to adopt other methods than their name to get their lips smacked.

To The Democratic Voters Of Madison County.

Richmond, Ky., July 28, 1913.
In my candidacy for the nomination for county clerk, I have tried as best I could to see every Democratic voter in Madison county. My failure to do so is due to the fact that my duties in the office have been unusually confining this spring and summer. The new law with reference to tax receipts has required the county clerk to make out for every tax payer a receipt and a duplicate receipt for every tax bill paid. This has kept me and my entire office force steadily at work for a period of six weeks, thus making it impossible for me to canvass during that time.

However, it is well known that I am a candidate for a second term and am asking an endorsement. So far as I have been able to learn, it is admitted by everyone that I have made a painstaking, faithful and efficient officer, and that the business of this office has been handled in a manner highly satisfactory to the people. I invite public inspection of the records of my office, and I feel that my familiarity with titles, records, etc., peculiarly fit me for even better service for the next four years. In the office of county clerk not a single instance can be cited from the beginning of the county's history down to the present time, where any man holding this office has been refused a second term. For more than one hundred years the people have recognized efficiency in this office and have rewarded the same by endorsement and re-election. If there is no reason to deny me what others have had, viz: an endorsement, vote for me, and I shall appreciate it very highly and will continue to attend to the people's business in the same efficient manner as I have in the past.

During the past three and a half years my office has remained open every hour in the day from seven o'clock in the morning until five and six o'clock in the afternoon, and people who have business in my office have found me and my deputies always on hand, ready and willing to wait on the public and assist them in every way possible.

I am, and have been, an active Democrat ever since I became a voter, and have contributed to the success of my party in every battle that has been waged against the Republican. If service to the Democratic party is worthy of consideration, I feel sure that those who know will admit that I have as much to my credit along that line as any Democrat in Madison county.

In making this final appeal, I ask the vote and influence of every Democrat in Madison county.

Respectfully,
R. B. TERNELL, 87-11

To The Voters of Madison Co.

I was born in this county 56 years ago on farm alive, there until coming to Richmond six years ago. Came from one of the oldest and strongest democratic families in the county, having voted the democratic ticket myself 48 years and voted no other way you may know I am a candidate for jailer. Just want it one term and promise not to ask for it again if given to me. I am the only one of the family has ever asked for office and I myself do not want it if I have to get it in an unfair way. I am for an honest and fair election. I have used no whiskey or money and will not use any. All I ask is a fair election and if elected I promise to fill the office with credit to myself and to the county. I am very sorry indeed that I have been unable to see each and every voter as I wanted to but owing to the loss of my horses from a new disease which has been in Richmond, I was knocked out for six or seven weeks and quarantined in. However, I am grateful that it wasn't worse, and I was soon able to be out again mixing with the voters all over the county. I ask each and every voter to think before going to the polls Saturday, that I am the oldest man on the ticket and never had a dollar but what worked for honest and honorable, and that I need the office. Thanking you and all for your earnest support and whether elected or defeated, shall be your friend, just as I am today. Again asking the true and honest support of all. While I am very grateful, I remain,
Yours Very Truly,
A. J. WILLOUGHBY.

Pleasant Occasion.

The Aid Society of the Kirkville Christian church spent a full day with Mrs. Reuben Baker last week and the members had a splendid time. Plans were discussed for raising money and work generally and this was followed by the spirited auctioning of a quilt, which had been made by members of the society. At the noon hour a toothsome meal was enjoyed, of which all partook freely.

Am Still in the Race and Will Be.

Some one has industriously circulated the report that I have withdrawn from the race for the Democratic nomination for Jailer of Madison county. This is a preparation of out whole cloth and is being circulated to injure me in my race. I am in the fight to the finish and have every reason to believe that I will win. I ask my friends and Democrats generally to pay no attention to such silly reports but to go on in the good work of talking and working for the party.

Secretary Albright Remembers Us.

Editor E. S. Albright, of the Mt. Vernon Signal, who is also secretary of the Mt. Vernon Fair, which will be held August 6, 7, 8, remembers us with a remembrance of the good people of this county. He has written us a letter insisting that we come to the exhibition, which will doubtless prove a creditable one to those who would use unfair tactics in this campaign. They have formed a vigilance committee and decreed to enforce the law and prosecute to the limit any candidate or voter who willfully or otherwise violates the election laws—by buying or selling votes. They are to be congratulated on their stand for law, order and decency. Every precinct in the county should follow this example and thus forever put an end to one of the most infamous customs of this State.
